

Pro Family Group

We will have an interesting topic on our Nov. 24th, 2007 meeting.

Dr. Nooravi will speak about the strength of men and women and what actually they need to present to each others.

Dear Ladies, please note our new address:

Golden Age Center, 18332 Ventura Blvd between Etiwanda and Reseda Blvd.

Time: 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Pro Family Group is a women's networking group created so women in the area could meet, network and support each other in the areas of family and career. Each meeting has short presentations, poetry readings and information exchanges.

Group members determine topics based on the interests of participants.

Please note that there are no fees required to participate in Pro Family Group events. We encourage your participation and ongoing feedback. Please feel free to forward this email to your friends so they can join us. If they are interested in receiving these emails, you can forward their email addresses to us.
